To prepare for this interview, here are the things we will be discussing. You should be prepared to talk about the topics listed below. Please write a response to these discussion topics. We are looking for more than “yes” or “no” answers. Please think carefully and respond meaningfully.

Living in the San Bernardino County area for the next two years (what are the chances that life could take you to another part of the world?)
Passing a drug test (could you pass today?)
Having a stable living situation (with parents? Roommates? With your boyfriend or girlfriend? Alone?)
Having transportation to school and/or work (car, bus, bicycle, etc.)
Your work history (few jobs? Many jobs? Ever been laid off or fired?)
Your situation with school (in school now? Hope to enroll soon? Not interested in school?)
Working on basic skills in reading and math (are upgrading these skills important to you?)

Meeting with Career Mentor on a weekly basis (tell us why you think regular contact could be beneficial for you.)

Providing documentation about your school or work on a monthly basis during the two years of the program (can you submit these?)

Attending and completing a 12 hour Customer Service Training (if you think customer service is important, explain why.)

Life Skills development through the completion of at least 10 life skill projects. (What skills of life would you like to learn? Name at least three)

Agreeing to adhere to the Career Institute behavior and dress policy (talk about what it means to be a professional in how you act and dress)

Possessing a hopeful, positive attitude about your future (tell us how you look at life)

Your pregnant or parenting status (do you have a little one on the way? Are you a parent already?)

Whether you are receiving public assistance (EBT card? Other programs you are in?)

Your preferred mode of contact (phone, email, text)

Which participant programs you are interested in (see programs offered at www.cinow.org)

Please describe in a powerful and compelling way why you would be a good participant for this program.
